Division and forwarded to the DD/I for handling. [REDACTED] of the DD/I Office in turn forwarded the list to the Director of Training, requesting that he make appropriate arrangements for briefing and substantive desk training of these officers.

25X1A9a

The G-2 designees will attend the Tenth CIA Orientation Course; and by special arrangement with OO, ONE and OHR, the officers will be given desk assignments for the duration of their tour at CIA.

7. A Panel, called together by the Director of Training, considered the applications of fourteen persons desiring to attend the National War College at its next academic session. Of this number, the names of six outstanding candidates will be sent forward to the DCL. Four persons are recommended, of whom three are to be selected.

8. A selection panel met in the Office of Training on 7 April to review seven applications [REDACTED]. Four persons were judged qualified for the program. Of these, three were selected as principals and one as an alternate. The four persons represent OHR, OSI and OCI.

9. At the request of the Air Force, some 214 persons from Air Intelligence are expected to attend the Monday Indoctrination Programs in the course of the next few months. The first group of four, which included the Chief of the Management Division, arrived on 30 March. The second group of nine officers attended the 6 April Indoctrination Program and among this number were Chief of Operations, Air Attache System, the Budget and Fiscal Officer, the Training Officer, and several Staff Intelligence Officers.

10. Changes recommended by the Office of Personnel in regard to the processing of new personnel into the Basic Intelligence Training Courses required that, beginning 23 April, the Monday Indoctrination Programs will be shifted to Thursday.

11. Arrangements have been made by the language staff of the Office of Training to train members of OHR who have basic Russian to give short reading orientation courses to large groups of analysts in "M" Building.

12. Data dealing with the diversified uses of the audio-visual mobile unit have been assembled by the Language Services Division, and a draft of the memorandum is to be sent to appropriate Training Liaison Officers who will be expected to make a survey within their offices as to their future needs for such a unit.

Every effort is being made to revise the OC in time for the next running on 27 April. [REDACTED] and the Chief of the Basic Training Division spent 2 and 3 April [REDACTED] in conference with [REDACTED] K1A9a and [REDACTED] regarding the content and scheduling of Phase II. It is obvious that this Phase will require five weeks unless some of the material is moved elsewhere. It has been settled that the next two runnings of the Phase II will be five weeks in length, with a 4-week break between. This break will give an opportunity for annual leave for the staff, as well as for revision and reconsideration of the course.
